BOOK SYNOPSIS

Book 11 in the Magnificent Devices steampunk series!"What do you propose, sir?"He held her astonished gaze as he went down upon one knee. "Why ... I propose. Will you do me the honor of becoming my wife, so that I may accompany you to San Francisco de Asis and help you stop this war?"Gloria Meriwether-Astor, determined to end the invasion her father and a power-hungry diplomat started, has found safety with the witches of the river canyons in the Wild West. But how can one young lady without so much as a hat to her name challenge a kingdom? Confronted with the solution--marriage--she has two choices: accept the help she needs, or return to Philadelphia alone and a failure. So, in the company of riverboat captain Stan Fremont, the dashing rogue she must now call husband, she sets off for the capital to negotiate with the Viceroy. But with an entire country mobilizing between herself and her objective, the attempt could mean her life--and the life of the one person she is beginning to care for ... "She makes hard choices because they're right, because of principle, because of morality--perhaps even out of a need to change her family and her business legacy: but Gloria's is ultimately the most unselfish path and that is unexpected." --Fangs for the Fantasy, on Fields of Air
